

ABSTRACTING

Meaning: Abstracting refers to the process of summarizing or distilling key ideas or themes from complex information.

1. Abstracting complex ideas can sometimes lead to misunderstandings if not done carefully.
2. The researcher spent hours abstracting the key themes from the lengthy report.
3. By abstracting the main points, she was able to create a concise summary for her audience.
4. His talent for abstracting difficult concepts made him an excellent teacher.
5. The process of abstracting information requires critical thinking and analytical skills.
6. Abstracting data from multiple sources can enhance the reliability of the findings.
7. While abstracting the artwork, the artist chose to focus on the emotional essence rather than realism.
8. She found that abstracting her thoughts helped her clarify her feelings about the situation.
9. Abstracting the essence of a story often reveals deeper truths about the human experience.
10. The software is designed for abstracting and organizing large volumes of information efficiently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abstracting>