

ABSURD

Meaning: Absurd: wildly unreasonable, illogical, or inappropriate; clearly contradicting common sense or rational thought.

1. The idea that the Earth is flat is absurd in the face of scientific evidence.
2. It was absurd to think he could run a marathon without any training.
3. Her excuses for being late were so absurd that no one believed them.
4. The proposal to cut funding for education seemed utterly absurd to the committee.
5. They laughed at the absurdity of the situation, realizing how ridiculous it had become.
6. Claiming that money can buy happiness is an absurd notion.
7. His argument was filled with absurd statements that lacked any logical basis.
8. It's absurd to expect perfection from anyone all the time.
9. The movie's plot was so absurd that it became a cult favorite among fans.
10. She found it absurd that they still believed in such outdated traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/absurd>