

ABURST

Meaning: 'ABURST' refers to being filled or alive with a particular quality or emotion, often in a vibrant or explosive manner.

1. The crowd erupted in cheers as the fireworks burst into the sky, illuminating the night aburst with color.
2. Her laughter filled the room, making the atmosphere feel aburst with joy and warmth.
3. As the sun set, the horizon appeared aburst with vibrant shades of orange and pink.
4. The garden was aburst with flowers in every imaginable hue, creating a stunning visual display.
5. His emotions were aburst with excitement as he opened the long-awaited letter.
6. The artist's palette was aburst with colors, showcasing her creativity and passion.
7. The old photograph was aburst with memories of a time long gone, evoking a sense of nostalgia.
8. The festival was aburst with energy, drawing in crowds from all around the city.
9. Her mind was aburst with ideas, each one more innovative than the last.
10. With each passing moment, the atmosphere became aburst with tension and anticipation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aburst>