ABUSIVELY

Meaning: In a manner characterized by harsh, cruel, or harmful behavior, often involving verbal or emotional mistreatment.

1. The manager spoke abusively to his employees, creating a toxic work environment.
2. She realized that her partner had been treating her abusively for far too long.
3. The coach's abusively harsh criticisms demotivated even the most talented players.
4. He was warned that his abusively aggressive behavior would not be tolerated.
5. The teacher was reported for abusively ridiculing students in front of their peers.
6. Abusively loud music during late hours can disturb the peace of the neighborhood.
7. They decided to leave the situation when the conversation turned abusively hostile.
8. Her abusively sarcastic remarks often left her friends feeling hurt and confused.
9. The company faced backlash for its abusively long working hours and poor treatment of staff.
10. Children who grow up in abusively neglectful environments often struggle with trust issues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abusively