

ABUTTER

Meaning: Abutter (noun): a property owner whose land shares a boundary with another property.

1. The two properties abutter each other along the northern boundary.
2. The fence serves as a clear demarcation between the abutter lots.
3. Neighbors often discuss the maintenance of the shared fence that abutters their yards.
4. In real estate, understanding the rights of an abutter is crucial for property development.
5. The abutter's trees provided much-needed shade to the garden next door.
6. Conflicts can arise between two abutters if one encroaches on the other's land.
7. The city council is reviewing the plans submitted by the abutter for a new building.
8. An abutter must be notified of any construction that might affect their property.
9. The abutter's opinion can significantly influence zoning decisions in the area.
10. She felt a sense of community with her abutter, as they often shared gardening tips.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/abutter>