

ACADEMIAN

Meaning: Academician: a scholar or academic who is engaged in or contributes to higher education and research in a specific field.

1. The scholar was respected as a leading academician in the field of physics.
2. Her dedication to her students earned her a reputation as a compassionate academician.
3. As an academician, he published numerous articles that contributed to the understanding of climate change.
4. The conference brought together hundreds of academicians from various disciplines to share their research.
5. Being an academician requires not only expertise but also a passion for teaching.
6. The young academician was invited to join the prestigious research committee due to her innovative ideas.
7. Many students aspire to follow in the footsteps of influential academicians who have shaped their fields.
8. The role of an academician often extends beyond the classroom into community outreach and advocacy.
9. As an academician, she found joy in mentoring the next generation of scientists.
10. His work as an academician has paved the way for new methodologies in educational practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/academician>