

ACADEMICALLY

Meaning: Academically refers to matters related to education, scholarship, or learning, particularly in terms of performance or achievement in academic subjects.

1. She excels academically, consistently earning top grades in all her subjects.
2. Academically, he struggled during his first semester but improved significantly by the end of the year.
3. The program is designed to support students academically and personally to ensure their success.
4. Academically, the institution is recognized for its rigorous standards and innovative curriculum.
5. She participates in various clubs that enhance her skills academically and socially.
6. He was awarded a scholarship based on his achievements academically throughout high school.
7. The workshop aims to help students develop academically while fostering a love for learning.
8. Academically, the new curriculum aligns with national standards to better prepare students for college.
9. The research project proved to be academically rewarding, leading to several publications.
10. They sought to create an environment where students could flourish academically and creatively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/academically>