

ACADEMICALS

Meaning: Academics refer to the formal attire or clothing worn by students and faculty during academic ceremonies and events.

1. Academics are often seen as a reflection of a student's dedication to their studies.
2. The university hosts an annual event showcasing various academic programs and their related academics.
3. Many students find that participating in academics enhances their learning experience.
4. The academics presented during the conference were both insightful and thought-provoking.
5. She excelled in her academics, earning top marks across all subjects.
6. The debate team prepared extensively for the upcoming academics competition.
7. He believes that the true value of education lies beyond mere academics.
8. The research conducted for the academics contributed significantly to the field.
9. Academics can sometimes overshadow the importance of practical skills in education.
10. Their commitment to academics reflects their desire to achieve academic excellence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/academics>