

ACADEMICIAN

Meaning: ACADAMICIAN: A member of an academy or an expert in a particular field of study, especially in higher education or research.

1. The distinguished academician received numerous awards for her groundbreaking research.
2. As an academician, he dedicated his life to exploring the complexities of human behavior.
3. Many students aspire to become an academician, inspired by their passionate professors.
4. The academician presented her findings at an international conference, captivating the audience.
5. With years of experience, the academician was elected to the national science academy.
6. His reputation as an esteemed academician opened doors to collaborative projects worldwide.
7. An academician's role is not only to teach but also to inspire critical thinking among students.
8. The young academician published her first book, reflecting her innovative approach to education.
9. During the panel discussion, the academician emphasized the importance of interdisciplinary research.
10. The university honored the retired academician for his lifetime of contributions to the field.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/academician>