

ACANTHOCARPOUS

Meaning: Acanthocarpous refers to a plant characteristic having spiny or thorny fruits or seed pods.

1. The acanthocarpous nature of the plant makes it difficult to handle without gloves.
2. In her botanical studies, she focused on the acanthocarpous species found in arid regions.
3. The acanthocarpous fruit of this plant is covered in sharp spines, deterring many predators.
4. Researchers noted that the acanthocarpous characteristics of the specimen were quite unusual.
5. During the expedition, they encountered several acanthocarpous plants thriving in the rocky terrain.
6. The acanthocarpous features of the cactus help it survive in harsh desert conditions.
7. He was fascinated by the acanthocarpous textures that decorated the landscape of the valley.
8. In traditional medicine, the extracts from acanthocarpous plants are believed to have healing properties.
9. The acanthocarpous adaptations of certain flora highlight the resilience of life in extreme environments.
10. As an expert in botany, she published a paper on the ecological importance of acanthocarpous species.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acanthocarpous>