

ACCENTUATING

Meaning: Accentuating means emphasizing or highlighting a particular quality or feature to make it more noticeable.

1. The designer chose bright colors, accentuating the modernity of the space.
2. Her laughter was infectious, accentuating the joy in the room.
3. The artist's use of light was masterful, accentuating the depth of the painting.
4. He spoke slowly, accentuating each word for clarity.
5. The documentary was powerful, accentuating the struggles faced by the community.
6. She wore a necklace that accentuated her elegant neckline.
7. The speech was gripping, accentuating the urgency of the situation.
8. The lighting in the theater was dramatic, accentuating the emotions of the actors.
9. His gestures were broad and animated, accentuating his storytelling.
10. The report highlighted key issues, accentuating the need for immediate action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accentuating>