

ACCEPTABLENESS

Meaning: Acceptableness refers to the quality or state of being deemed satisfactory or suitable for approval or acceptance.

1. The acceptableness of the proposal was debated among the committee members.
2. She questioned the acceptableness of the new policy in light of recent events.
3. The acceptableness of his behavior at the event raised eyebrows among the attendees.
4. Evaluating the acceptableness of various solutions is crucial in decision-making.
5. The team assessed the acceptableness of their findings before presenting them.
6. In the end, the acceptableness of the project's outcomes determined its future funding.
7. The acceptableness of the product to consumers influenced its market success.
8. They sought to enhance the acceptableness of their practices within the community.
9. The acceptableness of the candidate's qualifications was quickly recognized by the hiring panel.
10. Discussions about the acceptableness of certain customs often reveal cultural sensitivities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acceptableness>