

ACCIDENTAL

Meaning: Accidental: occurring unexpectedly or unintentionally; not planned or deliberate.

1. The accidental discovery of the ancient ruins changed our understanding of history.
2. She sent the email to the wrong person, but it was purely accidental.
3. His accidental slip of the tongue revealed a secret he had meant to keep.
4. The artist's accidental splatter of paint created a masterpiece on the canvas.
5. We were surprised by the accidental meeting, which led to a fruitful collaboration.
6. An accidental fall caused him to sprain his ankle just before the big game.
7. She made an accidental purchase online, not realizing she had clicked the wrong link.
8. The accidental mix-up in the lab resulted in a groundbreaking research finding.
9. It was an accidental encounter that reignited their long-lost friendship.
10. His accidental laughter during the serious discussion lightened the mood in the room.
11. The accidental discovery of the ancient artifact amazed the archaeologists.
12. She made an accidental error in her calculations that changed the results.
13. His accidental slip of the tongue revealed a long-held secret.
14. The painting was an accidental masterpiece, created during a moment of inspiration.
15. They found an accidental bond over their shared love for old movies.
16. The program had an accidental glitch that caused it to crash unexpectedly.
17. Her accidental brush against his hand sent a jolt of electricity through the air.
18. The accidental mixing of the ingredients resulted in an unexpected flavor.
19. He incurred an accidental injury while playing soccer with his friends.
20. The accidental meeting of their eyes sparked an instant connection.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accidental>