

ACCIPIENT

Meaning: Accipient: a person or entity that receives something, particularly an award or obligation.

1. The accipient of the award felt overwhelmed with gratitude.
2. In the contract, the accipient must fulfill all specified obligations.
3. As an accipient of the scholarship, she was determined to excel in her studies.
4. The accipient of the message was surprised by its unexpected content.
5. He was designated as the accipient of the funds intended for community development.
6. As an accipient, it is crucial to understand the responsibilities that come with the benefits.
7. The attorney explained the rights of the accipient during the negotiation process.
8. The trust was established to ensure that the accipient would be financially secure.
9. She acted as the accipient for her family's estate after the passing of her parents.
10. Being an accipient means you must also consider the implications of your acceptance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accipient>