

ACCLAMATION

Meaning: Acclamation is a loud and enthusiastic expression of approval or praise, often from a crowd or audience.

1. The crowd erupted in acclamation as the winning team took the stage.
2. Her speech was met with thunderous acclamation, highlighting her popularity among the audience.
3. After the performance, the dancers basked in the acclamation of the enthusiastic crowd.
4. The scientist received widespread acclamation for her groundbreaking research in renewable energy.
5. In a surprising turn of events, the politician was greeted with unanimous acclamation at the rally.
6. His contributions to the community earned him acclamation from both local leaders and residents.
7. The acclamation from her peers gave her the confidence to pursue her dreams.
8. The award ceremony was a night filled with acclamation for artists and innovators alike.
9. His remarkable achievements in the field garnered him international acclamation and praise.
10. With each round of applause, the acclamation grew louder, filling the auditorium with energy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acclamation>