

ACCLIMATEMENT

Meaning: Acclimatement refers to the process of adjusting or becoming accustomed to a new environment or climate, particularly in relation to changes in altitude or temperature.

1. Acclimatement to high altitudes can be challenging for many travelers.
2. The researchers studied the acclimatement process of various plant species.
3. His acclimatement to the tropical climate took several weeks.
4. Acclimatement is essential for athletes competing in extreme environments.
5. The team focused on the acclimatement of individuals in different weather conditions.
6. Her acclimatement to the fast-paced city life was surprisingly smooth.
7. The program included workshops on the acclimatement of newcomers to the community.
8. Acclimatement often involves physiological changes in response to new surroundings.
9. They provided support for the acclimatement of international students on campus.
10. Understanding the stages of acclimatement can help in managing expectations during relocation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acclimatement>