

ACCLIMATION

Meaning: Acclimation is the process of adjusting to a new environment or conditions, often involving physiological or behavioral changes.

1. Acclimation to a new environment can take time and patience.
2. The scientist studied the acclimation process of the fish in varying temperatures.
3. After several weeks of acclimation, she finally felt comfortable in her new job.
4. Successful acclimation is crucial for animals transitioning to different habitats.
5. The team's acclimation to the high altitude improved their overall performance.
6. He experienced some discomfort during his acclimation to the colder climate.
7. Acclimation to a bustling city can be overwhelming for those from quieter towns.
8. Understanding the stages of acclimation can help in adapting to change.
9. The gradual acclimation to a new culture can enrich one's life experience.
10. Her acclimation to the demands of motherhood required significant adjustments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acclimation>