

ACCORD

Meaning: Accord (noun): an agreement or harmony between parties, often formalized in a document.

1. She reached an accord with her colleagues to complete the project by next month.
2. The two countries signed a peace accord to end years of conflict.
3. In order to move forward, we must come to an accord on these important issues.
4. His actions were in accord with the company's values and mission statement.
5. The committee worked tirelessly to ensure that all voices were heard before reaching an accord.
6. The accord between the rival factions was celebrated by the community as a turning point.
7. They found themselves in accord on their approach to environmental sustainability.
8. The treaty outlined the terms of the accord and established a framework for cooperation.
9. She felt a deep sense of accord with the principles of fairness and justice.
10. After lengthy discussions, both parties finally came to an accord that satisfied everyone involved.
11. The two countries reached an accord after lengthy negotiations.
12. She signed the accord, committing her country to environmental protection.
13. In the spirit of accord, they decided to work together on the project.
14. The accord between the rival factions brought much-needed peace to the region.
15. It was difficult to find an accord that satisfied both parties' demands.
16. His actions were in accord with the principles of honesty and integrity.
17. They could not come to an accord on the terms of the agreement.
18. The team operated in accord, making the project run smoothly.
19. Her views were in accord with the latest research findings.
20. The accord was celebrated as a major milestone in diplomacy.
21. She was pleased to find an accord between her values and her actions.
22. The committee worked tirelessly to ensure that the final agreement was in accord with environmental standards.

23. In an unexpected turn of events, the factions decided to come to an accord for the sake of peace.

24. His actions were not in accord with the expectations set by the organization.

25. The accord signed by the leaders laid the groundwork for future cooperation.

26. They managed to reach an accord that satisfied both parties involved.

27. The musicians played in perfect accord, creating a beautiful harmony.

28. After the meeting, it was clear that they were in accord on most issues.

29. The new policy was developed in accord with the latest scientific research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accord>