

ACCORDABLE

Meaning: Accordable: capable of being agreed upon or compatible with.

1. The terms of the contract were deemed accordable by both parties.
2. Her suggestions were seen as accordable to the team's overall goals.
3. In this context, the regulations are not strictly accordable to every situation.
4. His actions were in accordable alignment with the organization's values.
5. The committee found the proposed changes to be accordable under the new guidelines.
6. Their differing viewpoints were ultimately rendered accordable through compromise.
7. The adjustments made to the policy were accordable with the latest research findings.
8. Finding a solution that was accordable to all stakeholders proved challenging.
9. In negotiations, it's essential to present terms that are accordable to both sides.
10. The new framework was designed to be accordable with existing legal standards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accordable>