

ACCORDANT

Meaning: Accordant: in agreement or harmony with something; consistent or compatible.

1. The two parties reached an accordant agreement that satisfied everyone involved.
2. Her actions were accordant with the values she had always espoused.
3. The committee's recommendations were accordant with the latest research findings.
4. He spoke in an accordant tone that reassured the audience of his sincerity.
5. Their views on the matter were not accordant, leading to a heated debate.
6. The design elements were carefully chosen to be accordant with the overall theme of the event.
7. As the negotiations progressed, their positions became more accordant.
8. The music played was accordant with the mood of the gathering, creating a harmonious atmosphere.
9. The findings of the study are accordant with previous literature on the subject.
10. The children's laughter was an accordant sound, filling the air with joy.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accordant>