

ACCORDMENT

Meaning: Accordment refers to the agreement or harmony reached between parties, particularly in negotiations or diplomatic relations.

1. The accordment of the two parties was crucial for the success of the negotiation.
2. In the realm of diplomacy, accordment often leads to long-lasting peace.
3. The accordment of resources allowed the project to move forward smoothly.
4. Her expertise in conflict resolution facilitated the accordment between the rival groups.
5. The accordment reached at the summit was celebrated by all attending nations.
6. Finding an accordment that satisfied both sides proved to be a challenging task.
7. The company's strategic accordment with local businesses boosted their market presence.
8. Many believed that a formal accordment would ultimately benefit both economies.
9. The treaty included a detailed accordment on trade and environmental issues.
10. Without proper accordment, the collaboration between the teams would likely fail.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accordment>