

ACCREDIT

Meaning: To accredit means to officially recognize or certify that an institution or program meets established standards of quality.

1. The university aims to accredit its new online degree programs by the end of the year.
2. She worked tirelessly to help the organization gain accreditation from the national board.
3. Before applying for federal funding, schools must ensure they are fully accredited.
4. The committee will meet next month to discuss which programs to accredit.
5. Our laboratory has been accredited by the international standards organization, enhancing our credibility.
6. To maintain accredited status, institutions must undergo regular evaluations and improvements.
7. Accrediting agencies play a crucial role in ensuring the quality of education provided.
8. The government has a strict process in place to accredit vocational training centers.
9. Students often prefer schools that are accredited, as it can affect their job prospects.
10. He was proud to announce that his research facility had finally received its accreditation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accredit>