

ACCUSABLE

Meaning: Accusable (adjective): capable of being charged with a crime or wrongdoing based on evidence or behavior.

1. The evidence presented in court made him seem increasingly accusable.
2. Her actions were questionable, but the prosecutor struggled to prove she was accusable.
3. In a world where transparency is valued, few people are truly accusable without strong proof.
4. The journalist faced backlash, as some claimed her reporting made her accusable of bias.
5. Despite the rumors, he remained confident that he was not accusable under the law.
6. The committee found that the official was accusable of misconduct based on witness testimonies.
7. It is essential to ensure that a person is not deemed accusable without sufficient evidence.
8. She felt a weight lift off her shoulders when the accusations were dismissed as baseless and non-accusable.
9. The lawyer argued that his client was not accusable due to lack of intent in the alleged crime.
10. In a fair judicial system, no one should be considered accusable without a thorough investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusable>