

ACCUSAL

Meaning: Accusal: the act of formally charging someone with wrongdoing or making allegations against them.

1. The accusals made by the witness were taken seriously by the authorities.
2. Despite the accusals, she maintained her innocence throughout the trial.
3. His constant accusals created a toxic atmosphere in the workplace.
4. The public's accusals against the politician were fueled by misinformation.
5. An accusals without evidence can damage someone's reputation irreparably.
6. After the accusals surfaced, the company launched an internal investigation.
7. She felt overwhelmed by the accusals that were being directed at her online.
8. The accusals were eventually proven to be baseless and unfounded.
9. In a court of law, an accusals must be supported by credible evidence.
10. The accusals from his colleagues prompted him to seek legal counsel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusal>