

ACCUSANT

Meaning: ACCUSANT: a person who accuses or brings a charge against someone, particularly in a legal context.

1. The accusant claimed to have witnessed the entire incident unfold.
2. In a court of law, the role of the accusant is crucial for establishing the case.
3. The accusant faced scrutiny as the defense attorney questioned their credibility.
4. She felt uncomfortable being an accusant, knowing the weight of her testimony.
5. The accusant provided detailed accounts that helped clarify the timeline of events.
6. Despite being the accusant, he struggled with doubt about his own memories.
7. The jury listened intently to the accusant's narrative during the trial.
8. As the accusant, her responsibility was to present the evidence clearly and convincingly.
9. In some cases, the identity of the accusant can influence public perception.
10. The accusant's motivations were questioned during the heated debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusant>