

ACCUSATIVELY

Meaning: Accusatively refers to a manner of speaking or constructing sentences that involves direct accusation or criticism, often highlighting faults or shortcomings.

1. She spoke accusatively, pointing out his faults without hesitation.
2. The teacher explained the concept of accusatively structured sentences in detail.
3. In the debate, he argued accusatively, highlighting the flaws in his opponent's logic.
4. Her tone turned accusatively as she confronted him about the missing funds.
5. The film portrayed the protagonist accusatively, accusing the antagonist of betrayal.
6. When she replied accusatively, it created a tense atmosphere in the room.
7. The article discussed how language can be used accusatively to manipulate opinions.
8. He felt unfairly judged when his colleagues spoke to him accusatively.
9. They communicated accusatively during the negotiation, each trying to outwit the other.
10. The author's style was often accusatively critical, challenging societal norms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusatively>