

ACCUSATORIALLY

Meaning: In a manner that expresses or conveys accusation or blame.

1. She glanced at him accusatorially, her eyes filled with distrust.
2. The witness pointed at the defendant, speaking accusatorially about the events of that night.
3. He frowned and spoke accusatorially, demanding to know why she had lied.
4. In the meeting, her tone turned accusatorially as she addressed the team's failures.
5. The detective's voice was accusatorially sharp as he questioned the suspect.
6. As the accusations flew, she felt the weight of the room's accusatorially charged atmosphere.
7. His accusatorially raised eyebrow suggested he wasn't buying her story.
8. During the argument, she gestured accusatorially, emphasizing her points with passion.
9. The journalist's article was written accusatorially, leaving no room for the accused to defend themselves.
10. He stood there, arms crossed, looking at her accusatorially for her lack of trust.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusatorially>