

ACCUSINGLY

Meaning: ACCUSINGLY: In a manner that suggests blame or charges wrongdoing.

1. She looked at him accusingly, as if she already knew the truth.
2. The teacher spoke accusingly, pointing out the mistakes in their work.
3. He raised an eyebrow accusingly when she walked in late.
4. Accusingly, she asked him why he hadn't called her back.
5. The detective eyed the suspect accusingly, searching for a crack in his story.
6. With a tone that was clearly accusingly, she questioned his loyalty.
7. The dog stared accusingly at its owner after being left alone for too long.
8. Accusingly, the neighbor reported the noise coming from their party.
9. Her voice was accusingly sharp as she confronted him about the missing money.
10. He turned away, feeling her gaze on him, accusingly scrutinizing his every move.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accusingly>