

ACCUSTOMABLE

Meaning: Accustomable refers to the capability of becoming accustomed or familiar with something.

1. The quiet town was accustomable to the sounds of nature surrounding it.
2. She found the idea of living in a big city accustomable after her initial hesitation.
3. With time, the children became accustomable to the new school environment.
4. His habit of waking up early was accustomable, even on weekends.
5. The staff worked hard to make the transition accustomable for the new employees.
6. They hoped the changes in the curriculum would be accustomable for the students.
7. Her gentle approach made the difficult concepts more accustomable for everyone.
8. The pet quickly became accustomable to the family's daily routines.
9. As the seasons changed, the locals became accustomable to the varying weather patterns.
10. With patience, the therapy proved to be accustomable for the anxious patient.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/accustomable>