

ACERB

Meaning: Acerb: sharp and forthright in tone or manner, often to the point of being harsh or bitter.

1. The acerb remark left a bitter taste in the room.
2. Her acerb wit often made her the center of attention at parties.
3. He delivered his critique with an acerb tone that stung the audience.
4. Despite her acerb nature, she had a loyal group of friends who appreciated her honesty.
5. The novel's acerb observations on society resonated with many readers.
6. His acerb comments were frequently misinterpreted as humor.
7. She had an acerb way of cutting through the nonsense in discussions.
8. The editorial was praised for its acerb insights into political corruption.
9. His acerb criticism of the film sparked a lively debate among moviegoers.
10. The comedian's acerb humor often pushed the boundaries of good taste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acerb>