

ACERIC

Meaning: ACERIC: (adjective) sharply critical or sarcastic in manner or tone.

1. The acerbic tone of her criticism left no room for misunderstanding.
2. His acerbic wit often alienated his friends during discussions.
3. The review was filled with acerbic remarks about the film's poor production quality.
4. Despite his acerbic humor, he had a surprisingly tender side.
5. She appreciated the acerbic insights of the commentator on social issues.
6. The author's acerbic style made the book both challenging and rewarding to read.
7. Her acerbic observations cut to the heart of the matter, leaving the audience stunned.
8. He used acerbic language to express his frustration with the bureaucracy.
9. An acerbic remark can sometimes be more impactful than a compliment.
10. The politician's acerbic speech ignited passionate responses from both supporters and critics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acerbic>