

ACHE

Meaning: Ache: a persistent, often dull pain or discomfort in a part of the body or an emotional feeling of sorrow or longing.

1. After a long day of hiking, I felt a deep ache in my legs.
2. She tried to ignore the ache in her heart as she watched him leave.
3. The dentist warned me that I might experience some ache after the procedure.
4. He experienced a dull ache in his back from sitting at the computer all day.
5. Emotional ache can often linger long after the initial pain has faded.
6. The athlete pushed through the ache in his muscles to finish the race.
7. She found comfort in a warm bath to soothe the ache of her tired body.
8. A sudden ache in his stomach made him realize he had forgotten to eat.
9. The artist poured her soul into her work to express the ache of loss.
10. He couldn't shake the ache of regret for the choices he had made.
11. The sudden ache in her back made it difficult to concentrate on her work.
12. After the long hike, he felt an ache in his legs that reminded him of his age.
13. She tried to ignore the dull ache in her heart as she packed up her childhood home.
14. The athlete pushed through the pain, determined to finish despite the ache in his muscles.
15. A sharp ache in his tooth prompted him to call the dentist for an emergency appointment.
16. Emotional ache often lingers long after the physical wounds have healed.
17. He could feel a deep ache of longing every time he thought about his old friends.
18. The ache of loneliness settled in as she watched the world outside her window.
19. She applied a warm compress to soothe the persistent ache in her shoulders.
20. His heart was filled with an ache of nostalgia as he flipped through the old photographs.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ache>