

ACHROMIC

Meaning: Achromic refers to a lack of color or pigmentation, resulting in a colorless or pale appearance.

1. The scientist noted that the achromic solution had no discernible color.
2. Her skin appeared achromic under the fluorescent lights of the laboratory.
3. The artist chose an achromic palette to emphasize the contrast between light and shadow.
4. In the absence of pigment, the fabric remained achromic and neutral.
5. Achromic vision can make it difficult to distinguish between certain shades of gray.
6. The achromic lenses helped reduce glare without altering the colors of the scenery.
7. He was fascinated by the achromic nature of the mineral sample he discovered.
8. The photography project focused on achromic images to highlight form and texture.
9. In art therapy, achromic drawings can be a way to express emotions without color.
10. The achromic characteristics of the paint made it ideal for a monochrome exhibition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/achromic>