

ACICULAR

Meaning: ACICULAR: adjective describing leaves or shapes that are needle-like, slender, and pointed.

1. The acicular leaves of the pine tree glistened in the sunlight.
2. She admired the acicular shape of the plant's leaves, so slender and sharp.
3. During the hike, we encountered acicular cacti that added an interesting texture to the landscape.
4. The designer chose an acicular motif for the wallpaper, evoking a sense of elegance.
5. His handwriting was acicular, with sharp angles that made every letter pop.
6. The acicular crystals formed in the laboratory were unlike anything the scientists had seen before.
7. In the winter garden, the acicular frost created a stunning display on the windows.
8. The artist's brush strokes were acicular, adding a dynamic quality to the painting.
9. Acicular structures in the mineral sample indicated a rapid cooling process.
10. The botanist cataloged a new species known for its acicular foliage, which attracted much attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acicular>