ACIDIC

Meaning: Acidic refers to having a pH level less than 7, indicating the presence of acids that can cause corrosion or a sour taste.

1. The acidic nature of the solution caused the metal to corrode rapidly.
2. Lemon juice is known for its highly acidic taste and refreshing properties.
3. During the experiment, we observed that the solution became more acidic over time.
4. Some soils are too acidic for certain plants to thrive, affecting agriculture.
5. The acidic content in the soda can damage tooth enamel if consumed excessively.
6. Chefs often use acidic ingredients like vinegar or citrus to balance flavors in dishes.
7. An acidic environment can foster the growth of some types of bacteria while inhibiting others.
8. The scientist explained how acidic rain can have detrimental effects on aquatic ecosystems.
9. Certain fruits, such as grapefruits and pineapples, are classified as acidic due to their pH levels.
10. In chemistry, an acidic solution is defined as one that has a pH less than 7.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acidic