

ACIDIFEROUS

Meaning: Acidiferous: capable of producing or containing acid, often resulting in a low pH environment that can affect ecosystems and plant growth.

1. The soil in that region is notably acidiferous, affecting the types of plants that can thrive there.
2. Researchers found that the acidiferous nature of the lake contributed to the decline of fish populations.
3. In the experiment, the acidiferous solution reacted vigorously with the metal samples.
4. Farmers in acidiferous areas often struggle to maintain crop yields without proper soil management.
5. The acidiferous properties of certain minerals can lead to environmental concerns in mining areas.
6. His study focused on the impact of acidiferous rainfall on local ecosystems.
7. The acidiferous environment of the cave fosters unique microbial life not found elsewhere.
8. It's essential to test for acidiferous conditions before planting sensitive crops in the field.
9. The acidiferous runoff from the industrial site raised alarms among environmentalists.
10. As the acidiferous conditions persisted, the biodiversity of the region began to diminish significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acidiferous>