

ACIDLY

Meaning: ACIDLY: In a manner that is sharp, biting, or sarcastic in tone or expression.

1. She responded acidly to his sarcastic comment.
2. The critic reviewed the play acidly, highlighting its many flaws.
3. He spoke acidly, revealing his frustration with the situation.
4. Her acidly humorous remarks often left others in stitches.
5. The debate became increasingly tense as they exchanged acidly charged insults.
6. Even in jest, his acidly pointed jokes cut deep.
7. She looked at him acidly, unimpressed by his feeble excuses.
8. The letter was filled with acidly worded complaints about the service.
9. He acidly remarked that the meeting was a complete waste of time.
10. Despite her acidly critical tone, there was a hint of concern in her voice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acidly>