

ACIDULATE

Meaning: To acidulate means to make a substance slightly acidic by adding an acid, such as lemon juice or vinegar.

1. The chef decided to acidulate the sauce with a splash of lemon juice.
2. To enhance the flavor of the dish, she chose to acidulate the vegetables with vinegar.
3. The mixologist skillfully acidulated the cocktail to balance the sweetness of the syrup.
4. He suggested that the recipe would benefit from acidulating the fruit with a bit of lime.
5. The scientist explained how to acidulate the solution for optimal results in the experiment.
6. In cooking, it is common to acidulate water to prevent fruits from browning.
7. She remembered to acidulate the marinade to tenderize the meat effectively.
8. The baker recommended acidulating the milk with vinegar to create buttermilk.
9. By acidulating the broth, they were able to achieve a more complex flavor profile.
10. The recipe called for acidulating the berries to enhance their natural tartness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acidulate>