

ACIDULOUS

Meaning: Acidulous refers to having a slightly sour or sharp taste or tone, often implying a mildly acidic flavor or a biting, caustic manner of speaking.

1. The acidulous taste of the green apples made them a refreshing addition to the fruit salad.
2. Her acidulous remarks during the meeting created an uncomfortable atmosphere among the team members.
3. The chef added a splash of lemon juice to the dish, giving it a delightful acidulous kick.
4. His acidulous commentary on the film revealed his disdain for its overly sentimental plot.
5. The acidulous nature of the vinegar enhanced the flavors of the homemade dressing.
6. She preferred acidulous wines that left a tangy sensation on her palate.
7. The acidulous scent of the citrus fruits filled the kitchen with a vibrant energy.
8. Despite its acidulous flavor, the yogurt was a perfect complement to the spicy curry.
9. The artist's acidulous critique of contemporary art sparked a lively debate among her peers.
10. The acidulous notes in the dish balanced perfectly with the rich, creamy sauce.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acidulous>