ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Meaning: Acknowledgement refers to the act of recognizing or expressing gratitude for someone's contributions or support, often formally noted in written work.

1. The professor expressed her gratitude in the acknowledgement section of her thesis.
2. His acknowledgement of the team's hard work boosted everyone's morale.
3. An acknowledgement letter was sent to all contributors of the project.
4. The artist received a warm acknowledgement from the audience after his performance.
5. She offered an acknowledgement of the challenges faced during the project.
6. In her speech, she made a heartfelt acknowledgement of her parents' support.
7. The book included an acknowledgement page thanking all those who helped.
8. His quick acknowledgement of the mistake showed his integrity.
9. They issued a public acknowledgement to clarify the misunderstanding.
10. The acknowledgement of diverse perspectives is crucial in fostering collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acknowledgement