

ACOUSTICIAN

Meaning: An acoustician is a specialist in the science of sound, focusing on its control, manipulation, and enhancement in various environments.

1. An acoustician designed the concert hall to enhance sound quality.
2. The acoustician recommended soundproofing materials for the recording studio.
3. To resolve the noise issue, the acoustician conducted a thorough analysis of the space.
4. Her expertise as an acoustician made her the ideal consultant for the theater renovation.
5. The acoustician measured the reverberation time to ensure optimal audio clarity.
6. After consulting with the acoustician, the team made significant changes to the audio system.
7. His work as an acoustician has greatly improved the listening experience in numerous venues.
8. Finding a skilled acoustician was crucial for the success of the orchestral performance.
9. The acoustician presented his findings at the annual conference on sound engineering.
10. As an acoustician, she is passionate about creating environments where sound can thrive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acoustician>