

ACQUIRABLE

Meaning: Acquirable: capable of being obtained or acquired.

1. The rare artifacts discovered in the ruins are all acquirable through a government auction.
2. Many skills are acquirable through online courses and self-study.
3. In the world of collectibles, certain items are considered highly acquirable for their historical value.
4. The knowledge shared in the workshop is easily acquirable for anyone willing to learn.
5. Investors should focus on acquirable assets that have potential for growth.
6. The latest technology is not yet fully acquirable by the average consumer due to high prices.
7. Her unique style of painting is something that many aspiring artists find acquirable.
8. With dedication and practice, fluency in a new language is acquirable for most people.
9. The limited edition prints are acquirable only through special events hosted by the artist.
10. Networking skills are acquirable through regular social interactions and professional engagements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acquirable>