

ACQUITTER

Meaning: To acquitter means to declare someone not guilty of a crime or to release them from legal charges.

1. The jury decided to acquitter the defendant after reviewing the evidence.
2. After a lengthy trial, the judge chose to acquitter the accused based on insufficient proof.
3. The lawyer worked tirelessly to acquitter his client from all charges.
4. During the trial, new evidence emerged that could potentially acquitter the suspect.
5. The public was shocked when the court chose to acquitter a known criminal.
6. She hoped that the new testimony would acquitter her brother from the allegations.
7. The prosecutor was disappointed by the verdict that would acquitter the defendant.
8. The unexpected revelation in court led the panel to acquitter the individual.
9. His defense strategy was successful enough to acquitter him of any wrongdoing.
10. The community rallied behind the accused, believing the evidence would acquitter him.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acquitter>