

ACRIMONIOUS

Meaning: Acrimonious means characterized by bitterness or harshness in speech or behavior.

1. The debate turned acrimonious as both sides refused to back down.
2. Her acrimonious remarks during the meeting shocked everyone present.
3. Despite their long friendship, the conversation became acrimonious and heated.
4. They parted ways after an acrimonious argument that shattered their trust.
5. The article was filled with acrimonious critiques of the new policy.
6. An acrimonious exchange of emails led to a breakdown in communication.
7. His acrimonious attitude made it difficult to work collaboratively.
8. The acrimonious tone of the debate left a lasting impression on the audience.
9. She tried to defuse the acrimonious situation with a well-timed joke.
10. The meeting was overshadowed by acrimonious exchanges that escalated quickly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acrimonious>