

ACRIMONIOUSNESS

Meaning: Acrimoniousness refers to the quality of being angry, bitter, or hostile in speech or behavior.

1. The acrimoniousness of their debate left the audience feeling uncomfortable.
2. Despite their long-standing friendship, an acrimoniousness crept into their conversations after the disagreement.
3. Her acrimoniousness was evident in the sharpness of her words during the meeting.
4. The acrimoniousness between the two political factions made compromise nearly impossible.
5. Even in moments of joy, an undercurrent of acrimoniousness lingered in their interactions.
6. The acrimoniousness of the divorce proceedings shocked their friends and family.
7. He tried to mask his acrimoniousness with a smile, but it was clear he was upset.
8. The discussion quickly turned sour as acrimoniousness filled the room.
9. In her writing, she captured the acrimoniousness of the rivalry with striking clarity.
10. The acrimoniousness of his tone suggested that the issue was far from resolved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acrimoniousness>