

ACRITY

Meaning: Alacrity: a cheerful readiness or eagerness to respond or act promptly.

1. She approached the task with remarkable alacrity, eager to impress her colleagues.
2. The team completed the project with alacrity, ensuring they met the tight deadline.
3. His alacrity in accepting the challenge surprised everyone in the room.
4. With great alacrity, she signed up for the marathon, excited to push her limits.
5. The children responded with alacrity when they heard it was time for recess.
6. Her alacrity in volunteering for extra assignments showcased her dedication.
7. Despite the late hour, the volunteers worked with alacrity to finish the setup.
8. The waiter served the meals with alacrity, ensuring all guests were satisfied.
9. He tackled the unexpected problems with alacrity, demonstrating his resourcefulness.
10. The dog wagged its tail with alacrity, thrilled to see its owner return home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/acrity>