

ADAPTATION

Meaning: Adaptation is the process of adjusting or modifying to fit new conditions or circumstances, such as in biological evolution or in the transformation of a literary work into another medium.

1. Adaptation is often necessary for species to thrive in changing environments.
2. The film's adaptation of the novel received mixed reviews from critics.
3. Her ability to adapt quickly to new situations is one of her greatest strengths.
4. Cultural adaptation can significantly impact how communities respond to globalization.
5. Evolution often drives the process of adaptation among living organisms.
6. The adaptation of the play for a modern audience was both creative and insightful.
7. Studying the adaptation of animals to extreme climates helps scientists understand resilience.
8. He focused on the adaptation of his teaching methods to better engage students.
9. The adaptation process can sometimes take years, depending on the complexity of the environment.
10. Successful adaptation requires both flexibility and a willingness to learn from experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adaptation>