

ADDUCTIVE

Meaning: Adductive refers to a process or reasoning that involves the addition or combination of elements to form complex structures or conclusions.

1. The adductive process in chemistry often involves the formation of complex molecules.
2. In linguistics, adductive reasoning helps to draw conclusions based on available evidence.
3. The adductive mechanism of the muscle group plays a crucial role in leg movement.
4. Through adductive synthesis, researchers can create new compounds with unique properties.
5. His adductive logic allowed him to connect seemingly unrelated ideas effortlessly.
6. In biology, adductive interactions are vital for understanding cellular functions.
7. She used adductive techniques to solve the complex puzzle presented in the challenge.
8. The adductive relationship between the two species indicates a shared evolutionary path.
9. Adductive reasoning can be particularly useful in forming hypotheses during research.
10. The artist's adductive style blends various influences into a cohesive composition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adductive>