

ADEMPY

Meaning: To adeupt means to revoke or annul a provision or gift, particularly in a legal context.

1. The court decided to adeupt the clause that was deemed unfair to the employees.
2. In legal terms, to adeupt a gift means to revoke it before the individual's death.
3. She felt relieved when her lawyer explained how the contract could be adeupted without consequences.
4. The family chose to adeupt their uncle's will after discovering his hidden debts.
5. When she learned about the changes, she realized she could adeupt her participation in the project.
6. The judge ruled that the estate could adeupt specific bequests if necessary.
7. He was surprised to find out that he could adeupt his pledge to the charity.
8. The organization decided to adeupt the proposal after receiving negative feedback from the community.
9. If the donor wishes to adeupt their donation, they must submit a formal request.
10. After much deliberation, they chose to adeupt the plan that no longer aligned with their goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adeupt>