

ADHERENT

Meaning: Adherent: a person who supports a particular idea, group, or movement.

1. The new policy received strong support from every adherent of the environmental movement.
2. As an adherent of minimalist design, she preferred simple lines and neutral colors in her home.
3. He is a dedicated adherent of the philosophy that prioritizes compassion and kindness.
4. The conference attracted many adherents of innovative technology and digital solutions.
5. Being an adherent of classical music, she attends concerts whenever possible.
6. The cult leader had a devoted group of adherents who followed his teachings without question.
7. Adherents of the fitness program reported significant improvements in their health and well-being.
8. She quickly became an adherent of the idea that lifelong learning is essential for personal growth.
9. The organization welcomed both adherents and newcomers eager to learn about their mission.
10. Despite differing opinions, he remained an adherent of the principle of open dialogue and discussion.
11. The adherent of the philosophy passionately defended her beliefs during the debate.
12. Each adherent to the movement was encouraged to participate in the upcoming rally.
13. His role as an adherent to the policy made him an advocate for change within the organization.
14. The adherent students showed great enthusiasm during the seminar on sustainable practices.
15. She found solace in the community of adherents who shared her values and goals.
16. As an adherent of minimalism, he carefully curated his possessions.
17. The adherent group met weekly to discuss their progress and challenges.
18. Adherents to the new diet reported feeling healthier and more energized.
19. The author's adherents eagerly awaited the release of her next book.
20. In a world of diverse opinions, it is important to respect the adherents of each belief system.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adherent>